

Dark Horse Role Goes To Cowboys

BY TOM McPHAIL

Northwestern track coach Jim Russell always has a crying towel ready, whether he needs it or not.

At the West Side track preliminaries at Mumford Tuesday, Russell kept saying "We haven't a chance," as he watched Cody and Redford place 11 performers in Friday's finals.

But the Cowboys' six qualifiers plus his two relay teams stand in position to throw the entire West Side meet into a tossup.

CENTRAL, led by Norm Young's 4:42.3 in the mile, put ten men into the finals. Mackenzie was a performer behind with nine.

Charles Hunter won his heats in both hurdles in qualifying for Mackenzie.
