in most of the races. Rollin Douma took both the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard low hurdles for the new state champions. His 19.3 time in the low hurdles beat the state record, but again too much tail wind caused it to be disallowed.

Willow Run probably contributed indirectly to River Rouge's downfall by winning the final event, the 880-yard relay. East Grand Rapids was second and Rouge third. Naobassa Poe, Mel Austin, Otis Harrison and Prewitt were timed at 1.31:8.

Rouge, which a year ago bowed to St. Joseph could Ypsilanti Roosevelt finished third with 20, Portland fourth with 18 and Frankenmuth fifth with 16.

Voorheis posted :09.8 in the 100-yard dash and broke a 25-year-old record of :10.0 set in 1933 by Hamilton White of Boyne City. Voorheis also won the 220-yard dash in 21 seconds flat.

Peltz scored a triple. He won the 120-yard high hurdles in :15.0, spanned 21 feet 3 5/8 in the broad jump, and posted :19.6 in the 80-yard low hurdles.

Brethren successfully defended its state high school Class D track championship by outdistancing runnerup Beale City, 37 1/8 to 30 2/3, in what was strictly a two-team battle. Galien was third with 16 2/3 points, and Grass Lake and Spring Arbor tied for fourth with 15 points. Brethren collected five first places, paced by Ken Beane's double, and a host of seconds and thirds and held off a late bid by Beale City.
