

24 Tuesday, May 27, 1958 DETROIT FREE PRESS

HE KEPT RUNNING AND running, and finally Edward Chalmers (left) of Eastern, passed Northeastern's Jerry Henderson just before they hit the finish line during a qualifying heat of the half-mile.

Track Test Ruled By Doughboys

BY TOM McPHAIL

Perching High, champion of the City League's East Side and boss of the league's track team, nominated 10 young men Monday to try for another divisional title.

The Doughboys picked seven and held event ones in trials followed by Dunby with eight events Monday to four and Central and South Side's preliminary meet at the track with seven men. The East Side's preliminary meet at Perching.

Northern, with Jean Edgar Chase getting a few more trials for a sweep in the 200-yard dash, will meet one another in seven events when the trials start Wednesday at 2 p. m.

CLARK, a basketball player of some fame, led the 220-yard dash trials with a time of 32.4 and matched Ken Burns' a time of 32.3 in the 100.

Burner, of Mumford, held down one of Mumford's nine or eight positions.

Whether or not the Mustangs send nine men to the track will depend on who wins a contest for the best place in the quarter-mile. The doughnuts involved when Fred Mitchell and Eastern's Jerry Henderson had the same trial time of 33.3.

For Henderson, a 4-10 1/2-incher will win the race Tuesday. Henderson will have qualified for the finals.

Northeastern put six into the trials.

BRUCE, a sophomore, scored a 22.4 in the 100-yard dash, a 32.4 in the 200, and a 1:02.4 in the 400. He is a member of the team.

WING, a sophomore, scored a 22.4 in the 100-yard dash, a 32.4 in the 200, and a 1:02.4 in the 400. He is a member of the team.

There will be a single game with the Red Sox Wednesday another off-day Thursday, then a series with the Chicago White Sox.

One recent addition who is racing the 500m right now is another Hack Aguirre, ex-Cleveland Indian who turned back the Washington Senators Sunday in his first start as a pitcher.

McHale On More

Continued from First Sports

That said the gangling left-hander will get every chance to become a regular starter and McHale expects Monday that such a move might make a relief pitcher out of Billy Howell.

Howell picked up Jim Bunning for three innings Saturday and did good work with the Red Sox but has shown all signs to make right-winger.

"Billy was great in relief last year," McHale said. "Maybe he has trouble pacing himself in a full afternoon performance; most of his trouble seems to come at the start."

"Perhaps relief work is his best position."

Paul Fortack, trying to regain his season record of 4-1, will go to the mound Tuesday night when the Tigers open a short series with the Red Sox, current leaders of second place.

He will be opposed by right-hander Dick Groat, who is 4-1 for the Athletics.

There will be a single game with the Red Sox Wednesday another off-day Thursday, then a series with the Chicago White Sox.

Clipped By:
coacho1939
Mon, Jul 19, 2021