

Redford Tops West Side Trials

Huskies Qualify
7 in Mile, 880

Redford High, showing its usual power in the distances, led qualifiers Tuesday in the City League's West Side track preliminaries.

The fast-stepping Huskies nominated 12 runners, including four milers and three 880 specialists, for Thursday's championships.

MACKENZIE, led by hurdler-pole vaulter Jim Oliphant, earned 10 places in seven events. Oliphant, who has cleared 12 feet, did not have to qualify but should win the vault.

Grabbing four spots in the broad jump with the four best leaps of the day, Northwestern entered nine in six events while Chadsey earned eight places.

Southwestern picked up six spots, four in the dashes, followed by defending champion Cody and Western with five each, Cass Tech with four and Cooley with three.
