SENATORS HERE IN 3-WAY BATTLE FOR FIFTH

Tigers Call on Davie to Ha

By SAM GREENE

The last time the Washington Senators were in town, they took three straight games from the Tigers, 9-1, 4-3 (10 innings) and 15-3. The third defeat was so humiliating that Bill Norman was fired as manager before he could leave the clubhouse.

Jimmie Dykes replaced Norman, and the Tigers proceeded to win 20 of their next 30 games. Tonight at Briggs Stadium they face the Washington sluggers in a battle for fifth place.

The Senators hold the position by one percentage point. Idle yesterday, they passed the Tigers who were overpowered by the New York Yankees, 14-3.

Jerry Davie, who will pitch against the Cuban Camilo Pascual, needs no reminder of his only previous experience with the Senators. He made his first major league

Detroit Public School track athletes have offered a most convincing argument in the last 10 days for a return to state competition. They used the cinder paths and jumping pits to prove beyond doubt that they can hold their own with the best anywhere.

Such boys as Henry Carr, Felton Rogers,

Lonnie Sanders, Terry Moore, Jerry Burrell, the Pershing and Mumford relay teams and others were brilliant in the preliminaries and league finals. By the time the last event was finished on Pershing's lightning fast track yesterday the prep stars had smashed eight existing records, three of them twice.

In addition, a mark was set and then tied in the 180-low hurdles, a new distance for the league.

Carr, a 16-year-old sophomore from Southwestern, started it by equaling the league record of :21.7 in the 220 on May 26. The next day Rogers, of Eastern, leaped 6-6 in the high jump; Pershing won the East Side medley relay in 2:27.9, a new time; and Mumford set a mark of 1:29.3 in the sprint relay.

The Southwestern youth clipped five-tenths of a second from the 220 with a clocking of :21.2 last Thursday. Then in the league semifinals Tuesday he ran the 100-yard dash in :09.7, a tenth of a second faster than the previous time, and the 220 in 21 seconds flat. Burrell, of Northern, cleared 22 feet 11 3/4 inches in the broad jump, a quarter of an inch better than a performance that stood since 1934.

But there was more to come yesterday as Mumford dethroned Redford for the team championship with 82 1/2 points to 54 1/2.

Burrell stretched the broad jump record to 23 feet 3/4 inch; Terry Moore, 16-year-old Redford sophomore, ran favored Frank Carissimi, of Denby, into the ground to win the mile run in 4:23.6; and Mumford lowered its own half-mile relay time to 1:28.9.

The mile was the day's most exciting race. Carissimi was a stride or two in front until the last 200 yards, when Moore challenged. He caught the leader with 150 yards to go and gained a 12-yard lead at the finish. Both bettered the Scout Cy Williams didn't underestimate the power of a woman in landing 17-year-old outfielder Andy Kosco as Detroit's $60,000 bonus player.

For two years Williams has been commuting from his home in Buffalo to Struthers, a suburb of Youngstown, O., to see young Andy play ball. The scout got well acquainted with Andy's father and his older twin brothers. More important, Williams made an enduring impression on Andy's mother and 15-year-old sister.

ON MAY 26, WHEN the Yankees took a whipping from the Red Sox, they were 9 1/2 games out of first place. Since then everyone with even a slight tendency toward literacy has written about what's wrong with them.

Narleski, and after an examination of a couple of old clippings and through observation and listening, there is an offering on what's right with them.

"He's playing better baseball than he ever did," remarked Casey Stengel. "Five-way baseball. He'll beat you with his arm, his legs, a fielding play and a long or short hit. He has been a three-way (ordinary arm and base running). And he has been a four-way (when one of the two was working). But in the last three weeks he's the best I ever saw except maybe, of course, Joe DiMaggio. It wasn't even Stengelese. You could understand every word without an interpreter.

Casey referred, naturally, to a young man from Spavinaw, Okla., named Mantle, who inherited his first name from Mickey Cochrane and was converted by Tommy Henrich, in a bygone day, from a shortstop to the outfield.

record of 4:24.9 made in 1950 by Al Williams, of Northwestern.

Martin Tansil, of Northeastern, put the shot 53 feet 9 inches, only an inch and a half from the record of 53 feet 10½ made in 1955 by Ermin Crownley, of Miller.

As expected, Mumford piled up most of its points in the sprints and relays, getting 18 in the 100-yard dash with second, third and fourth; 14 in the 220; and 10 each in winning the medley and half-mile relays. Russ Binion tied for first in the pole vault.

Redford scored 12 points each in the quarter and mile; 10 in the half mile; eight in the shot put; and eight more on an unexpected second place finish in the medley. Redford's slim chances of catching Mumford vanished when Garry Chapin hit the finish line first in the half-mile run, only to be disqualified for jostling on a turn.

Back of Mumford and Redford in scoring were Pershing (52); Eastern (47); Southwestern (40); Northern (24); Northwestern (21); Northeastern (20); Central (19); Cass (10); Western (10) Denby (8); Chadsey (7); Mackenzie (5); and Cody (1½).

A comparison of performances shows Detroit contestants leading the state in eight of the 13 events.
