

Cawley Pulls A 'Triple' In Suburban

Warren Cawley, running unattached, swept to three victories in the first section of the Suburban Track Club invitational meet Tuesday at Redford Union High.

The Farmington High graduate took the 120-yard high hurdles (14.1 seconds), the 100-yard dash (10.0) and the 440-yard run (49.4).

Other winners in the 17-and-over division were Jerry Bocci of the Detroit Track Club in the three-mile run, Detroit policeman Buddy Coleman in the hop-step-jump, and Art Cranston of the Suburban Track Club in the shot put.

TWO OF THE four firsts in the 16-and-under class went to Al Bronson in the high hurdles and Steve Jacobson in the 100.

Mike Vorce of the Suburban Track Club won the 440, and Reese Sutton of the Lincoln Park Track Club took the shot put.

Remaining events in both divisions will be run next Tuesday at Birmingham High.
