Southwestern Opens With 72-37 Track Win

By VINCE SIKORA events and staged a successful noon with a 72-37 victory over. visiting Walled Lake.

Floyd Bates won two events and tied for a third and Jim Bracy captured two other tests in the first meet ever on the Colts' cinders. All winning efforts became track standards.

Bates captured both hurdles, tied Hamp Morris with the best high jump and got the Colts' 880 relay team off to a winning start ito account for 151/4 points. Bracy Southwestern High swept three added a third for 11 points. Southwestern, which hosts Wattrack inauguration Tuesday after-erford in a 4 p.m. Thursday meet, swent the low hurdles, high jump and broad jump with Bracy's 20foot 21/2-inch leap taking the latter event.

Coach George LeBrasseur's Blue and White home forces won eight of the 13 events with Al Talbot clearing 10-6 to take the pole vault. Bates' 15.6 high hurdles clocking, Talbot's winning vault and Ed French's 40-4 toss in the shot put became Colt records. Bates had a 15.7 effort, Talbot a 9-6 leap and French a 38-4 toss last year.

One of the best running feats failed to bring a Colt point. It came in the mile relay with Art Tallman, handling the t h i r d leg. running a strong 440. He faced a 35-yard deficit — incurred when the second Colt runnner dropped the baton — but changed it to a stride lead that was erased by Walled Lake anchorman Jim Webb.
