ALBION, May 6—Greater Lansing's four Class A high schools dominated the "A" section of the 31st annual Albion Invitational track and field meet today.

Lansing Sexton won the title as expected, as second straight. East Lansing was second with 51 points behind the Big Reds' winning total of 61. Lansing Everett was third with 30 points, Lansing Eastern sixth with 9 while Lansing Waverly and Lansing Dobie tied for 12th in the Capital City monopoly.

HASLETT THIRD

Haslett with 28 1/3 points carried the Greater Lansing flag to a third-place finish behind East Jackson (31 11/12) and Ann Arbor University high (27 2/3). St. Mary came in sixth with 21, DeWitt 13th, and Lake Odessa 17th.

Okemos, the lone Lansing area Class B entry, scored 10 1/3 points for a 14th-place finish.

In Class D, Dimondale piled up 17½ points for a fourth place behind Ashley had 34 in fifth, and Carson City-Crystal was sixth. Centerville was a tail-ender with 10 points.

One or more of the Greater Lansing Class A schools scored in every event. Sexton was by right-strong, points in all but three events.

FIRSTS ARE FEW

The Big Reds carried off the first-place trophy with the help of only one individual victory and that came in the 180 low hurdles when Jim Hazlett, who was leading in the high hurdles before he kicked the last barrier and fell, was a section of the low hurdles, and Dan Patterson anchored the mile relay team to a narrow victory over Eastern.

Hazlett, who was clocked across the finish line third in the high hurdles, also shared in a six-way third place tie in the high jump.

Bill Proot contributed seconds in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and in the shot put. Other second-place points came from Sam Hopkins in the high hurdles and the Reds' half-mile relay team anchored by Proot.

TROJANS WIN THREE

Lansing Eastern was responsible for three first places, two of them by speedy Alan Zinn...Don Ross won the shot put with a toss of 46-8½, while Zinn broke the years in a second-place finish in the 100.

Bill Schauer of Everett was a high hurdle race and the Vikings' Hand Trio tied for first in the high jump at 6-0.

Other first-place efforts were a 9-6 leap turned by Jim Shiley in the pole vault, Bob Hamel's new and is a high hurdles section, and a second by the mile relay team.

Dennis Rengard won a section of the 300-yard dash for Haslett and C and added a first in the 880.

St. Mary rode into sixth place in Class C mainly on the strength of Dick McCloy's first in the 120 and a victory in the half-mile relay.

Beryl Woodman won the 220 for Dimondale in Class D. Haslett second in the broad jump and fourth in the 100.

Joe Joseph Take In Masters Q

DETROIT, May 6 (UPI)—Joe Joseph of bowling's smoothest deliverers, gained an unyielding play opened in the 12th of Congress Masters tournament today.

Joseph had a 202 game for his opening, the huge 600 team field. Joseph's games, the 226 game topped the day's efforts by the entire field.

Joseph, who calls Lansing his home, has appeared in the Masters in Detroit, has appeared in the Masters finals twice with his best finish a seventh place in 1959.

Dean Castado of New Orleans was the only other bowler to hit the rolling a 900 series, with games of 301, 226 and 344.
