Northwestern was on the verge of wrapping up its second successive West Side track championship when the rains came yesterday.

The downpour, lasting almost an hour, caused Public School League supervisor James Stout to call off the meet. It was to be completed today.

Six events were decided with Henry Carr winning two, the broad jump and 100-yard dash, as Northwestern piled up 61½ points. Southwestern had 36 and Redford 24.

Carr started the day by beating Dennis Holland, of Redford, in the broad jump. Holland led the preliminaries with a leap of 21-5, two inches farther than Carr. The Northwestern star jumped 22-9¾ in the finals, leading Holland by 4½ inches.

Northwestern registered 22 points in the 100, run just before the deluge. Carr was an easy victor in 9.8 seconds. Team-mates Charles Shelton and Bob Harris were second and fourth.

Redford's first came in the one-mile relay in 3:27.1, Northwestern finishing second in 3:28.7.

Southwestern led in two events, Harold Lucas putting the shot 49 feet 6¾ inches and Gerald Brazil taking the 120-yard high hurdles. There was a four-way tie in the high jump with Jim Morgan, of Mackenzie; Oliver Darden, of Western; Bob Ruppert, of Western, and Bill Leach, of Northwestern, clearing 5-10.

Mumford was favored in the East Side championships at Pershing today.

The six qualifiers from each section enter the league semifinals next Tuesday. The finals are next Thursday. Both the semifinals and finals are at Pershing. The field events begin at 2 p.m., the races at 3:30.
