

Rockets Take Early Track Lead

Pace O-K Teams In Run Finals With 12 Points

Kelloggsville, paced by Herb Landefeld's first place in the shotput, took an early lead in the Ottawa-Kent Conference track meet Tuesday afternoon at Lee Field.

Finals in the shotput and broad jump were held Tuesday afternoon, with the two other field events and all running event finals scheduled for Wednesday afternoon.

Landefeld tossed the shot 46-9 to edge out Rogers' Ian Brown, the second place finisher. In the other field event final, Larry Boldt took first in the broad jump, leaping 20-3½.

After two events; Kelloggsville's Rockets had 12 points, Rogers 8, Hudsonville 6, Lee 2, Forest Hills 2 and Byron Center 0.
