

Northwestern High School won its second successive Public School League West Side track title Friday. The Northwestern relay with a strong finish by Henry Carr, was clocked in 1:28.1 bettering the record of 1.28.2 set by Northwestern last year but the time was erased and the team disqualified for running out of its lane.

---

"The boys had to stay in their lanes until the end of the first leg, but the first northwestern lanes until the end of the first leg, but the first Northwestern runner cut to the rail on the first turn," to say in heir explained Dave Beauvais, starter and referee.

Northwestern scored  $107\frac{1}{2}$  points, Redford  $90\frac{3}{5}$ , Southwestern 64, Chadsey  $28\frac{1}{2}$ , Mackenzie  $22\frac{1}{5}$ , Cooley 17, Cody 16, Western 16 and Ford  $10\frac{1}{5}$ .

Carr added a first in the 220 to those he won in the 100.