

Cranbrook Wins Sever

Speedy Barney Crouse, a compact-built dashman, won three events and set a school record in the 100 to spark Cranbrook School to its seventh consecutive Inter-State Preparatory track championship at Cleveland, Ohio Saturday.

Crouse, state Class B 220-yard champ in 1960 and 1961; hit the tape in 9.9 seconds to win the 100, ran the 220 in :21.7 and recorded a leap of 20'10 $\frac{1}{4}$ " to take the broad jump. He also anchored the winning 880 relay team.

THE CLASSY Cranes were too much to handle as they recorded 94 points. Shady Side of Pittsburgh, Pa. had 54 points. Western Reserve University High had 48 $\frac{1}{3}$, University School of Cleveland 35 $\frac{5}{6}$ and Nichols of Buffalo, New York 5 $\frac{5}{6}$.

In addition to Crouse's triple win, Steve Way, who dropped baseball just a week ago, soared over the crossbar at five feet eight inches to beat the high jump field.

AL WILKINSON returned after his groin injury to match his school record with a winning 11-foot-six-inch effort in the pole vault.

The mile relay (team of Larry Hard, Bob Dearth, Baky Grannis and Tom Wilson streaked the distance in 3:31.8 to smash the old 3:32.0 record established in 1954. This team won by 50 yards.

With Crouse anchoring the 880 relay foursome, Hard, Wilson and Arch Copeland posted a 1:33.6 clocking.

ESSEL BAILEY "flew" over the hurdles in :15.8 to copy the 120-yard low hurdles.

Jess Brewer picked up a fifth and second in the high and low hurdles, respectively.

Bob Hicks was second in the 440 dash and third in the 100. Bill McMullen and Bob Friz ran two-three in the mile; Brit Gordon, Jeff Walters and Norm Lee were second, fourth and fifth, respectively in the 880; Boy Boye was fourth in the 220; Steve Early was fifth in the broad jump; Linn Hobbs and Bob Parsons were in a three-way deadlock for second in the high jump.

SEAHOLM HIGH slipped to 12th place in the state Class A final at

