KANSAS CITY (AP)—Gino Cimoli's two out single in the ninth inning scored Dick Howser to give the Kansas City Athletics a seesaw 8-7 victory Saturday over the Los Angeles Angels.

While Cimoli's one-baser was the deciding hit, Ed Charles was the A's earlier batting star with a grand slam home run and a pair of singles. Lee Thomas drove in four runs with a pair of round trip shots for the Angels, and Leon Wagner tied the score in the ninth with his 12th four-bagger.

Howser started the ninth with a bunt single off Art Fowler, the sixth Los Angeles pitcher, and was sacrificed to second by Jerry Lumpe. After Norm Siebern grounded out, Cimoli stroked the ball into left for the winning hit. The winning pitcher was Diego Segui (3-2), who had relieved Danny McDevitt with two out in the seventh inning.

The Athletics held a 7-5 lead going into the seventh when Thomas hit his second home run off starter Jerry Walker after two were out. McDevitt came in and gave up a double to Bob Rodgers and walked pinch hitter Steve Balko before Segui was waded in from the bullpen. He got Felix Torres to line out to Howser, and by the eighth had a 7-6 lead.
