All-City Track Meet At Everett on Tuesday

By BOB HOERNER
(Lansing Sports Writer)

Sexton high and five individuals will defend city track and field championships in the All-City meet at Everett's track Tuesday evening.

Greater Lansing's four Class A schools, Sexton, Eastern, East Lansing and Everett, plus the city's two parochial schools, Class B Resurrection and Class C St. Mary, will compete in the meet.

Qualifying runs will be held in the two dashes and the two hurdle races Monday afternoon at 4:30 p. m. at Everett's track. Eight qualifiers in each event will run in Tuesday's track.

The field events will start at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday. The running events will start about 7:30 p. m. The admission charge is 50 cents.

Sexton is heavily favored to repeat as team champion, with East Lansing the chief threat. St. Mary and Resurrection have their strongest delegation in recent years but lack depth to be serious threats for the team title.

Six of last year's individual champions will run Tuesday, but Sexton's Bill Snell, last year's quarter-mile champion, has switched to the hurdle events and is not expected to defend his 440 title.

Defending champions are Sexton's Dick Allen, 100 and 200; Denny McDowell, pole vault; East Lansing's Al Zinn, both hurdles; John McQuitty, mile; and Bob Salzer, half-mile.

Allen has the best sprint times in the city and should have little trouble winning the city crowns for the third straight year. The Big Reds senior won the regional titles a week ago and is favored to take the Six-A honors at Ann Arbor next Saturday.

Zinn, who won the two hurdle races last year as a sophomore, probably has the roughest competition of any of the defending champs. Zinn's best time this year in the high is 15.1 seconds.

Everett's Ron Perrin has 14.8. Snell 14.9 and Bob Stanek of Eastern has 15.6. John Truitt, also of East Lansing, has a 15.1 clocking.

Snell has the best low hurdle time, a 19.8 effort. Zinn is next at 21.7, followed by Henry Fattino, Everett sophomore, 19.8.

Sexton's Gordon Dewey (4:32.8) and St. Mary's Tom Dalton (4:34.5) have better times this spring than McQuitty in the mile. McQuitty's top effort so far is 4:37.6.

Jim Verduin, a teammate of Bob Salzer, has the best half-mile time this spring. The East Lansing runner won the South Central league championship in 1:59.4. Salzer's best is 2:00.8.

Bob Myers of Everett is around 2:01, Sexton's Tom Warriner 2:02, and Eastern's Denny Hill 2:03.

McDowell has been the leading vaulter in the city all spring, hitting the 12-foot mark a couple of times. He is expected to repeat as city vault champion.

Snell's quarter-mile title will be a rather toss-up with Sexton's John Malaya (51.7), Everett's Jim Harris (51.8) and East Lansing's Gordon Jones (51.9) and John Salzer (52) in the leading candidates.
