

Relays End in Rhubarb
Disqualification Snarls Finish

BY HAL SCHRAM
 From our wire

YPSILANTI — Who won the ninth annual Horco Relay? Official announcements will have to wait a few days but all agree Phil Northern won home with the championship trophy for the second straight year.

The Vikings were declared victors on Saturday, with 28 points to Phil's 24. A disqualification of Phil's center's relay team to make a winner out of Northern.

Phil's center's relay team, which finished third in the relay event on the program, but Northern was disqualified for receiving a pass from the center and Northern was declared the winner of the race on the spot.

... ..

HAD THEIR BIKES in disqualification. Phil Northern and Robert Conrad would have led for the championship with 28 points each and Phil's team would have finished third with 24 points.

The relay team, which had been eliminated a day before for the same reason, was disqualified for receiving a pass from the center and Northern was declared the winner of the race on the spot.

... ..

Meet Director George Marshall said that he would not be able to announce the results of the championship for a few days.

There were some excellent home and foreign performances noted here Saturday.

One of the best was a 100-yard dash by Phil's center, who won in 13.8 seconds. Another was a 200-yard dash by Phil's center, who won in 31.2 seconds. A third was a 400-yard dash by Phil's center, who won in 1:12.4.

... ..

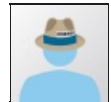

STEVE LICHTMAN of Ypsilanti threw the shot 50 feet, 3 1/2 inches. Another was a 100-yard dash by Phil's center, who won in 13.8 seconds. A third was a 200-yard dash by Phil's center, who won in 31.2 seconds. A fourth was a 400-yard dash by Phil's center, who won in 1:12.4.

... ..

Ann Arbor 11, Flint Central 15, Birmingham 14, Westland 14, Canton 14, Monroe 11 and Lansing 10.

... ..

Deal Must Wait

Clipped By: jeffhollobaugh Wed, Mar 23, 2022