

Cubs Top Redford in Dual Meet

The sun drew a few high school track teams outdoors Thursday—to those tracks where the footing was firm enough to run.

U-D High visited Redford and brought back a 62-42 victory in the non-league duel. Bob Stier won both hurdles events and Lyle Mehlenbacher doubled in the dashes among U-D's eight firsts.

Redford's Art Link managed a 1:56.6 half mile and John Squiers put the shot 52 feet.

FERNDALE defeated Southfield, 62-47, on slams in the 100, 220 and mile. John Kish won both dashes and John Alwin both hurdles.

St. Francis Cabrini routed Grosse Pointe St. Paul, 85-27, paced by Gene Shukis' triple in the dashes and broad jump.

Cody stayed indoors to whip Western, 52-33, in a City League opener. Tom Piechota won the 30-yard dash, 220 and teamed on the winning sprint relay and Gordon Corwin won the pole vault and high and low hurdles.

In baseball, Redford St. Mary rallied on a three-run fifth in-
