Everett Repeats in Albion Relays

Journal Sport-Snaps

THREE OF A KIND—Sexton's track team seems like a family affair this season with three sets of brothers on the team, one set of them identical twins. The brothers are: (left to right) Charley and Roger Davis, Dick and Chuck Brandt and Rick and Rob Shannon. The Davis brothers Bartle and high jump while the Brandts run the 440 and 880-yard runs. The shannons, identical twins, are middle distance men. (State Journal Photo)

Big Reds Second at Chip Relays

ALBION — It wasn't even close here Saturday. Everett scored in 11 of 13 events to walk away with team honors in the Class AA division of the Albion Relays for the second straight year.

The Vikings failed to score in only the shot put and the 880-yard run while piling up 54 points, nearly double the 30 scored by runnerup Mount Clemens. Battle Creek Central was third with 29 points while Eastern ninth with 8.

Everett's team victory was expected but the Vikings' two hurdlers, senior Henry Patino and junior Ross Barnes, fizzled in a couple of surprises during the meet.

Patino was beaten by Battle Creek Central's Dick Speights in the high hurdles, his first loss of the season. Speights was timed in 14.3, best time in the state this season, while Patino checked 14.4 in second. However, the race was aided by a wind over the allowable limit.

Patino lowered his All-City record to 14.4 in the morning preliminaries.

The Viking senior gained revenge in the low hurdles by whipping Speights with an excellent 19.6 clocking around a turn but that race also was aided by a strong wind.

Patino also was a member of the winning 880-yard relay team which checked 1:30.8, fastest time in the state this season, but that mark also was well away from the All-City record. Other members of the quartet were Les Karen, Tom Smith and Rich Ryals.

Barnes placed third in the low hurdles and fourth in the highs but unexpectedly won the broad jump with an effort of 20 feet, 1½ inches. Strong headwinds held down performances.

Everett's other first came when Fred Schnarr won the pole vault at 13 feet even.

Charlotte scored only one point in the Class A division when Forrest Gunnison placed fifth in the 880 while DeWitt had four points in the Class C division, picked up on a 4th-place in the mile by Dan Johnson, a 5th in the 880 and 5th in the low hurdles by Paul Dunbar.

MOUNT PLEASANT — Area high schools had to settle for runnerup roles here Saturday afternoon in a day of record breaking at the Central Michigan Relays.

Sexton placed second in the Class A division with 54 points while Portland was second in Class C as 11 meet records were set and two others tied in the haze meet.

Birmingham Seaholm won the A title with 42 points while Battle Creek St. Philip was the C winner with 28 points.

Boswell was seventh in A with 26 points while Mt. Pleasant was 10th with 10 points. East Lansing tied for 13th with seven points, all coming in the mile, and Grand Ledge tied for 17th with five points.

In the mile, Williamston tied for ninth place with 15 points, Carson City tied for 14th with eight, Perry was 17th with six points. Elsie scored five while tying for 20th. Mt. Pleasant Sacred Heart scored four points and Laingsburg had three.

Sexton picked up a victory, three seconds and three thirds as the A meet. The Big Reds scored their only victory when the shuttle hurdles relay team of Charley Davis, Don Cummings, Roger Davis and Chuck Bostrom won in :56.2, only a shade off the meet record.

East Lansing also had a first
