

Redford Trackmen Rule West

BY HAL SCHRAM

If Redford High is going to challenge Pershing and Central, the East Side powers, for the City League track title next week, coach Bruce Waha will have to "fire up" his newly-crowned West Side champions.

The Huskies dethroned Northwestern Thursday as West Side champions, but didn't flash either the form or strength to scare the East Side favorites.

Dave McKelvey, who can do much better, ran an ordinary 440-yard in :50.7 while Redford's only other first place came from a mile relay team of Dennis and Curtis Smith, Bill Merckle and McKelvey who stepped a more-lively 3:28.9.

IT IS TRUE Redford got 18 of its 79 points with a 2-3-4 finish in the shot but Wednesday Pershing got 28 points from its broad jumpers.

One thing is certain. If Redford can't stop Pershing and Central, there's no other school on the West Side that can. This is one of those weak
