Thurston Finds Whiz

middle-distance runner while at Michigan State and a schoolboy sensation at Kalamazoo Central 12 years ago, had tipped off Thurston's prospects earlier.

"I like our chances in the weeks ahead," said Lake, in his second year of coaching at the West Side suburban school. "We're going to have a good track team."

"Bristol is our boy. He does a lot of things well and he's the fellow who can give us our biggest lift."

Tigers Break The Spell... Peddle Faul

Special to the Free Press

LAKELAND — The art of hypnotism suffered a serious setback Saturday. The Tigers got rid of Bill Faul.

They sent the world's only hypnotic hurler to the Chicago Cubs. They gave him up for $35,000 or a player of equal value to be named later.

It won't be Ron Santo. N

THE FALL of Faul was expected. He irritated the Tigers this spring by his refusal to follow advice. And he still est hour in 14 years of track and kept its word to a noisy student body which followed the squad here by surprising 55 other rivals and winning the Class A team championship with 38 points.

"I told the kids we would win this one," beamed Max Berry, starting his 10th year as coach of the Wildcats.

"When Lyle Matteson held off George Hoey, of Flint Central, to win the 880 relay for us, I knew we could do it."

Roseville won both the 880 and mile relays, final two events of the meet, to earn its first notable track trophy since the school captured the state Class B crown back in 1951.

Roseville picked up a second in the sprint medley relay, and a third in the distance medley event to go with its two first places. Flint Central finished a close second with 32 points.
