

Lamel, Jesus Alou and Tom Haller each stroked four. Giant hits with Lanier driving in four runs and Alou scoring four.

Tony Perez hit a homer and two singles and Vada Pinson slammed a bases-empty homer, leading the Cincinnati Reds to a 9-4 victory over Philadelphia Saturday night.

Perez hit his homer in the first inning as the Reds hopped on Bo Belinsky for five runs. Pinson triggered a three-run third with a leadoff homer before Don Pavletich drove in two more with a double.

Wonderous Willie Mays hit his 16th and 17th home runs but the San Francisco Giants had to settle for a split of their day-night doubleheader with Houston Saturday when pinch hitter Nellie Fox's run-scoring single in the eighth inning of the nightcap gave the Astro's a 3-2 comeback victory.
