

Greater Lansing 'A' Teams at Battle Creek

Sexton Top Regional Threat

By HAL BATEMAN
State Journal Sports Writer
An old track season holds true Saturday, Sexton will be a top contender for the team title at the Class A regional in Battle Creek.

Other local schools in the field include Eastern, Everett, East Lansing and Grand Loize.
The first three placers in each event advance to the state meet next week at the University of Michigan.

Manuel is undoubted as the best in Greater Lansing track history in Eastern half mile.
While Manuel paced the sprint several times, Duke takes care of the handling.

Manuel and Curtis Owen and hunters Charley Davis and Mike Hill.
Sexton has posted an impressive record, including a highly regarded victory in the Albion relay last Saturday.

Waverly also has several top entries in quarter-mile Mike K.
Great and pole vaulter Bob Ebe while Odoms miler Tom Trunk is back to defend his title.
