

By KATHY SCHULTZ

Two Port Huron Catholic High School students won state honors at the sixteenth annual Michigan Junior Classical League convention at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Saturday.

Some 70 students from Port Huron Catholic High School's Latin Department were among those attending the conference in Hill Auditorium.

Andy Bryan, a fourth year student, won the Roman History Contest. John McNulty, a second year student, won the Projects And Display Contest with a project titled "Ruins Of Pompeii."

Charles Fritz of Lansing Eastern High School, president of the League, opened the assembly. Dr. Harlan Hatcher, University of Michigan president, welcomed the visitors. Mr. Lynn Poole of Johns Hopkins University spoke on "Latin—The Eternal Language."

The day's program included 20 workshops.

The day proved an interesting one for the students who attended. They returned home at 7:30 p.m. Much credit for planning the trip goes to the Latin Department instructors, Sister M. Suzanne, SSJ, and Sister Marie Mark, SSJ.

* * *

Girls' Track Meet Saturday

The girls' track team, sponsored by the PH Catholic High

GAA, has been readying itself for many weeks for the Annual Girls' Bluewater Track Meet, which is to be held Saturday at Marysville City Park. The Meet, which begins at 9 a.m. and will last most of the day, will see about 20 PHC girls vie for honors they have received in past years and try to bring home some new ones as well.

Nineteen events are scheduled for the nine participating schools. The winners of each will receive ribbons for prizes. These events include both track and field activities.

The St. Clair County Athletic Association sanctions the event. The girls have been working for about two months in preparation. Miss Frances Foley is sponsor of the group.

McKinley Pup Auto Plant A

"Boy, look at that orange convertible. I never saw one that color before. I like this blue one myself. I'll take the red one. Man, aren't they sharp?" These and many similar remarks could be heard being made by the boys and girls in Mrs. Margaret Gibbs', Mrs. Virginia Collins' and Mr. Nick Pagen's classes at McKinley School as they

Port Huron girls plans 5-19-1966

Clipped By:

jeffhollobaugh
Mon, Dec 3, 2018