Canadian Romps In Jaycee Track

Some 500 Detroit kids spent 13 hours—from 9:30 a.m. into the night—running and jumping in Cobo Arena but a Canadian came across the river and won the biggest event Saturday.

Rick Storry of Windsor took the featured Freedom Festival half-mile run in 2:00.8 and took it easily.

A performance just as impressive, however, was Ira Russell's leap of 23-1½ in the broad jump.

That sent Russell from the

Shad Still A Problem On Beaches

Resort owners along Lake Michigan's eastern shore, from Benton Harbor to Muskegon, are reeling under the stench of invasion for a third straight year.

The American shad, alias the alewife, has been piling up steadily, creating a huge stink and a rather unsightly deposit for summer refugees from the big, hot cities.
