

Miss Kraker Wins Event In Canada

Continuing her winning ways is Ann Arbor's Francie Kraker, who captured the women's 880-yard run in the Highland Indoor Meet at Hamilton, Ont.

Miss Kraker was clocked in 2:15.3 to break the meet record by almost two seconds. The old record was held by Roberta Picco of Toronto at 2:17.1 and was set last year.

During the meet, Ray Tucker, a 20-year McMaster University freshman, emerged as Canada's strongest threat in the middle distance events.

Tucker streaked to an impressive victory in the 1,000-yard run. His victory was over a strong field, but it did not include Bill Brothers, who was sidelined with an injured foot.

Bob Findlay of Toronto won the mile in 4:10.5 over John Fath of Fordham, Pete Buniak of Toronto was the two-mile winner, defeating Michigan State's Dick Sharkey.
