

8 Detroiters Win in Youth Games

Special to The Detroit News

NEW YORK—Detroit won eight track and field events—six for the girls and two for the boys—in the finals of the 1967 National Youth Games Saturday at Downing Stadium on Randall's Island.

The Detroit team finished third with 156½ points to Washington's 216 and New York's 214.

In bowling, Detroit's combined boys and girls squad finished sixth with 12½ points and the boys' basketball squad was eliminated in the semi-finals by San Francisco, 41-38.

Marvin Baker was clocked in 6.4 seconds for the 50-yard dash for 10-11-year-old boys and Jeff Schultz tossed the shotput 54 feet, 9 in the 14-15 age bracket.

THE DETROIT GIRLS' track winning efforts saw a pair of 1-2 finishes. Sheryl Taylor took the 100-yard dash for 14-15 year olds in 11.4 seconds and she was trailed by teammate Leona Mathis in 11.5.

Johnetta Davis won the 220 in the same age bracket in 25.6 and teammate Brenda Flanagan was second in 25.7. All four comprised Detroit's winning 880 girls' relay on a time of 1:44.1.

In the 12-13 age class Detroit had a winner in the running high jump as Zenura Davis hit 4 feet 10.

The other Detroit girl winners were Sheila Nelson in the running long jump for 10-11-year-olds (13 feet 2), and Varn Boswell in the running high jump (5 feet, 3½) for 14-15 year olds.

ELIZABETH EATHORNE made the best showing on Detroit's bowling team. She finished third in the 10-11-year-old bracket with an 82 game, but missed an opportunity to win class honors when she fouled on her last ball in the 10th frame.

Greg Lewis ranked best among Detroit's boys. He finished fifth in the 10-11 age bracket with a 136 game.

New York took the team bowling title with a 73-point total to New Orleans' 36 and San Francisco's 32. Washington was fourth on 13½ and Cleveland fifth on 13 followed by Detroit.
