

The MINT LINE

By Doug Mintline

Short-Lines:

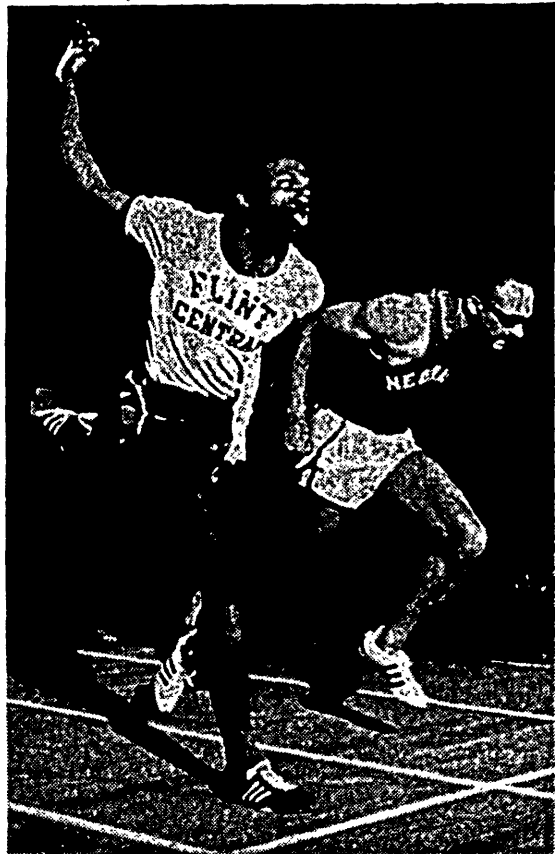

Carl Krieger, Central High track coach, still is disappointed the officials of the Milwaukee Journal Indoor games didn't give Tribe-sprinter Herb Washington an identical clocking of 5.1 seconds in the 50-yard dash. The race was won by Charley Greene of Lincoln, Neb., to tie the indoor record. Krieger felt Washington won and says many major college coaches agreed with him. "The least they could have done is give Herb the same time," says Carl. One thing he's right about, the race WAS close. The accompanying Milwaukee Journal picture shows the finish. . . . No Flint radio station will broadcast the Detroit Tiger games this summer. . . . Michigan's golf team leaves Friday for March Island, Fla., to prepare for the annual Miami Invitational at Coral Gables next week. The squad includes Flint's Rod Sumpter.

New Coach of the Year Clinic

A basketball Coach of the Year Clinic is scheduled March 30-31 at Pick Fort Shelby Hotel in Detroit. Flint's Jack Pratt, St. Matthew High, will be on the panel with Dave Strack, Will Robinson, Ben Sierra, Frank Kuta, Dick Snyder and John Orr. Registration is $10 and may be made to Paul Smarks, Fitzgerald High, 23200 Ryan Rd., Warren 48091. . . . Shell transports a crew of 38 plus 8,000 pounds of equipment for the Wonderful World of Golf television series. Seven camera crews expose 30,000 feet of film for each match and it is boiled down to 2,132 on-the-screen footage. . . . Jets quarterback Joe Namath recently distinguished between two types of social affairs—get together and parties—held in his $500 a month Manhattan apartment. "A get together is when the guys come over to eat steak and play cards," says
