(Special to The News)

QUANTICO, Va. — Two members of the Michigammes, southeastern Michigan women's track and field club based in Ann Arbor, were among the top three finishers in the Quantico Relays Cup 880-yard run.

Francie Kraker gained runner-up honors with a time of 2:10.8, exactly one second behind Madaline Manning's first-place clocking, while Susan Dudley, who recently turned 16, was third in 2:14.

In addition, the Michigammes logged the fifth best time in the 440-yard relay when Liz Caldwell, Miss Kraker, Alice Steinicke and Mary Hokanson teamed but failed to qualify for the finals.

Miss Steinicke and Janie Schulte entered respective 2:23.9 and 2:25.0 times in the 880 but failed to qualify for the finals.
