High Jumpers Pace Best Midwest Track Efforts

By DON LINSTROM (State Journal Sports Writer)

Here it is again — that annual glimpse of the fantastic in prep track and field.

This time it was the "year of jump performances in the nation, the high jumper," along with 4-foot 11 inches, Wisconsin the discipline runner and the pole vaulter which, roiled supreme in the comparative perform- Western's prep track prestige generally. Mt. Hall, 6, flows over the bars.

With such stars as Pat Matzdorf of Sheboygan North, John Mastenaki of Oak Creek, and Jim Hall and Jim Franklin of Madison, Badger athletics seemed again to hold their own among their neighbors.

EMPHASIS on prep track in the Midwest keeps climbing, and so does the performances.

Led by Matzdorf, who claimed the sixth best prep high mark ever in the nation, the high jumper, along with 4-foot 11 inches, Wisconsin retained its much place position among among 37 midwest state records set by preps as the Badgers ran more than 50 meets.

The chief again includes Midwest states from Montana to Pennsylvania.

MOST STATE meets were held in heat (mid weather, although Illinois' meet was given-

ROUNDY SAYS . . .

At the Wisconsin Cup Race for Unlimited Hydroplane racers Sunday I sit between the Judge's stand and the pit. I'll have on a swimming suit and I'll have an umbrella with me.

I hope the resorts up north have a good year. There ain't a better trip any place than through northern Wisconsin. I am going to take a trip myself up there.

The other day some men were talking politics in my office. There's two month politics exit it in half and there would still be too much.

I can't understand why the U.S. is taking the beating they are in this war. I am a good prognosticator but I can't prognosticate this.

What does it mean is the first place? If their American boys losing their lives it don't sound good to me.

Vas Weidensaul has got 200 chairs at his place so people can see the boat races Sunday. What more could he have?

Al Thiben has got a beautiful view he has got an apartment in the Town House. He will have to shut the windows or the water might come up there.

I dropped into the Madison Optical Service the other day. There's quite a few people working there. I had a nice talk with Al Bernacchi and Connie Steiner. Are they ever experts with the [illegible]. They didn't charge me for looking.

I was a guest of Cec Heftner at Lake Windsor. Hank Holly and Brandy played Cec and Joe Spararo.

We returned them Cec has a tan on him you'd think I was over gone to Florida this winter. It is a [illegible] beauty he had his shirt off I sure it.

He had a run! I just played over holes they played 18 holes. If Cec didn't try so hard he would be a good golfer but he pressures away too much that hurts his game. Joe Spararo was Cec's partner; he was all over Dane County with the ball. He would make a good ballhawk he can really go to all directions.

Hank Holly his golf is off this year he's a good golfer with the woods and also the irons. When he hits them they roll. Lee Roth he down the cart by the first tee holes. So he gave up he got so tired looking for the golf ball he couldn't drive the cart to the other side.

We all had a hamburger and there the hamburger I had was Nice ribbon one at the World's Fair. Ruth Caldwell is the cook get out there at the Lake Windsor Country Club. Ike Fred Harth hamburgers size and soft. I told her to fix me another one of there babies.

I asked Stookey the other day if he plays golf. He said why would I play golf he said if I hit the ball 10 yards I wouldn't be able to find it. He said why ride in a golf cart when I get two cars?

I got an invitation to the wed-

Joseph Cloeder he has got charge of the pro shop at Lake Windsor. I used to know his dad well he was on the Boxing Commission when I was. he is over 6 jumper he's all over the place. He has got a nice personality. That is what the golfers like.

I got a card from Ireland there people are in dear old Dublin and Belfast. On the card was a picture of the Round Tower at Waterford, Ireland it is the most beautiful sight I ever seen in my life. The card was from Mike and Elsie Mercer.

I saw Chief Justice E. Harold Hallows he was at the Hall Fame banquet he's quite a guy. I love to talk to him. Him and Judge Bellows are a couple of dandies. They are the only two I know on the bench I guess.

I think I promised some women an one of my books "What More Could Be Fairer?" I think her name is Mrs. Scott Moore. I don't know if there's any left or not. I'll have to look and see there and I might be able to get one off from him if he hasn't sent them all out to his friends.

Dear Roundy:

You asked the question about the slicing machine — Does it slice ham, baloney, or what? Unlike the other guys, who make promises and never keep them, we send you a free sliced ham, baloney, or whatever you want. We not only slice, but we deliver, also! As we would say Could Be Fairer!

Hey, easy time spell my name right.

Yours truly,
John Deckles

The golf classes will be on Tuesdays at 5 p.m. Mondays at 6 p.m. Tuesdays at 5 p.m. Thursdays at 6 p.m.

Tennis will be taught at the East High School courts at 7 p.m. Tuesdays and at the West High School courts at 7 p.m. Thursdays.

Matzdorf Leaps for Golden West

Pat Matzdorf of Sheboygan North High School, one of two Wisconsin entries, will compete today in a star-studded high in Calif.

The Badger state high jump champion, who cleared 6 feet 11 inches, and lone hurdler Jim Bertolino of Madison will bat for honors in a meet which sprinkles two world-class jumpers and the fastest prep quarter-miler in American history.

General chairman Tom Bishop Jr., confirmed Friday that national record-holders Otis Harris of Wauwatosa, Calif., had entered the jump. He leaped 7-1¼ earlier this season. The only other senior 7-footer, Lorenzo Almy of Coca Grande, Ariz., is also in the field. California's two-time champion who cleared seven feet last Saturday, Junior Reynolds Brown of Compton, is missing.

Others in the field are Pat Bradford (6-5) Vic of Compton; Ron Lindsey (6-4) of Fresno; Jim Gibbs (6-8) of Kansas City; Mo., and Joe Markey (6-10) of Scottsdale, Ariz.

Bertolino has turned in a 13-flat second clocking, which is the slowest time among nine competitors. The nation's 'rider, Bob Bondurant (18.1) of Stanford, Mo., however; has also entered the 330 intermediate hurdles instead.

A dream race lines up in the 440 where the field is headed by Juan Franzetti of Puerto Rico, who has run 46.3 in the 440 and :46.0 in the 400 meters. He is reported chiefly by Edrol Lawrence (:46.2) of Compton, Calif., Jim Geiger (:46.4) of Bexley, Jimmy Evans (:47.4) of Waco, Tex., and Jimmy Mercer (:47.4) of Dayton, O.

Senator Errors Help Angels Win

ANAHEIM (AP) — George Brunet pitched a six-hitter and the California Angels converted two errors into two eighth-inning runs for a 2-0 victory over Washington Friday night.
