

State Girl Shares Junior Olympic Mark

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A Weepee Lake, Mich., girl claimed a share of a new record in the senior girls' 880-yard race at the Junior Olympics Championships Wednesday at Knoxville, Tenn., but had to settle for second place.

Susan Dudley was timed at 2 minutes, 14.5 seconds, along with Jane Hill of Temple Hills, Mo. who won first place. The previous record had been 2:18.9.

In the senior boys' 120-yard high hurdles, Detroit's John Morrison was second with a time of 14.2 seconds. Bruce Collins of Chester, Pa., won the event in 14.1 seconds.
