

High Altitude Just Right For Francie

(Special to The News)

LOS ALAMOS, Mex. — Love that high altitude.

Ann Arbor's representative on the U.S. Women's Olympic track team, Francie Kraker, seems to be thriving on the high altitude work at the squad's training camp.

Miss Kraker ran a fine 2:07 in an intrasquad race at the 800-meter distance. The first place runner was Doris Brown, who also holds the world's record, and she was timed in 2:06.4. Madeline Manning was a distant third.

As a reward for her effort, the officials presented Miss Kraker with her signed and sealed credentials for the Olympic Games which will be held in Mexico City next month.
