

Schafer Relays Crippled by Downpour

BY HAL SCHRAM

John Morrison, Redford Union's celebrated hurdler, went to the Schafer Relays Saturday—but he didn't stay very long.

Neither did a lot of other people.

For the second straight year, the huge schoolboy carnival out on North Line Road in Southgate was hit by heavy rain. Many contestants and coaches didn't bother to stay. John MacKenzie, the Redford Union coach, was one of those who pulled out early.

"With the state regionals future in risking injury or pneumonia for my boys," Mac-Kenzie said. Before he left, record of :14.1 in winning his however, Morrison did set a high-hurdle preliminary heat.

Morrison has won this spring at such meets as Mansfield,

East Lansing and Eastern Michigan, and won't miss the medal which went to Pontiac Northern's Mel Reeves, who decided to stick it out and win the event. Reeves also won the 180-yard low hurdles.

THE RAIN and cold didn't stop Southgate's Bruce Doran from footing it to a record in the 440. Doran turned in a nifty :49.4 quarter-mile, good under any standards.

also showed some class with a fine 1:56.1 half mile. Schafer, the host school, won three firsts in the field events.

Pontiac Northern and Southgate tied for team honors at 18 points, with Schafer only a
