10is Call it irony, poetic justice or just plain talent. It was truly isis fitting that a Saginaw High performer received the first trophy asis as the outstanding athlete of the inaugural Herb Korf County Invitational track meet. Non

Ken McKinnon, Saginaw High junior, was named the ship meet's top performer and was presented the trophy by Mrs. Herb Korf following the event at Saginaw High's New Alumini ots: Field Tuesday night A chilled crowd of 380 attended the initial meet, sponsored by The Saginaw News, on an unseasonably itry ase- cool night.

behind Carrollton sophomore Dean Somerfield, who won with a time of 20.8. Somerfield was another of the many fine athletes who performed tremendously during this initial Korf Invitiational. He ran a leg of the 880 relay that Carrollton won and placed fourth in the 220 dash. He teamed with Ken Neigh, Mike King, and Charlie Brown to win the relay at 1:33.9.

Brown placed in the top five in three other events including the 880 relay. The senior sprinter took a second in the 100-yard dash at 10.3 seconds and long jump (21-1) while placing third in the 220 dash (230).

Bridgeport's Gary Peaphon was the meet's only other double winner in individual events. He was the class of the 100 and 220 fields. The blond runner broke the tape at 10 seconds flat in Merrill's Tom Fordos turned in a sparkling performance against competition from Class A and B athletes He took second in the 220, fourth in the 100 and fifth in the high jump.

Freeland's John Sanford was vaulting way into the night as he cleared 12-3 to win the pole vault competition. He just missed at 12-6. Michigan Lutheran Seminary's Mark Toepel jumped 6-2 in the high jump for a first.

The exceptional turnout and fine reception from coaches promises that this will be the first of many fine Herb Korf meets for an even finer man.
