Charlotte harriers 1-2 at Sturgis run

STURGIS — Togetherness is a word two Charlotte prep harriers are taking seriously.

Jim Chenoweth and Bill Bytwork added another individual championship to their season laurels. Already the Oriole's duo have tied for honors in the Albion and Comstock Invitationals.

Charlotte, paced by the 1-2 finishers who were timed in 12:24, won the Sturgis Invitational. The Orioles tipped Harper Creek 45-69, followed by Sturgis (71), Marshall (132) and Coldwater (134). Albion took eighth place.

Kirk Bisco, Randy Gillett and Rick Berning ran a respective fourth, seventh and 10th in the meet for Harper, while Fred Lang of Sturgis was third and Albion's Pete Asaro placed fifth.

Harper Creek won the junior varsity meet as Beaver runner Jerry Ledford captured individual honors.
