Welcome track enthusiasts:

We take this opportunity to welcome all to the first presentation of the Observerland Relays, a program we at the Observer Newspapers have long thought would be a welcome addition to the spring high school sports schedule.

We feel you will enjoy watching the outstanding schoolboy tracksters of the seven communities covered by the ONI perform at one track.

The field in this meet is the best. Tonight you will be seeing young athletes doing their bit as schoolboys but undoubtedly some will go on to become standouts in college and you may be seeing the development of an Olympic champion of some five years hence.

We hope you enjoy every minute of every event and that in years to come there will be teams from all of the 22 schools in Observerland in competition.

You are viewing the start of what should be the track meet of the year and we hope you realize that it is only because of the full co-operation of the schools, coaches, athletic directors and superintendents who are doing everything they can to assure the success of this meet.

Again, thank you for your interest in attending and we hope everyone will go home with the thought that they have had a full evening of entertainment watching the high school stars of today, the collegians of tomorrow and perhaps the Olympians of the future.

Sincerely,

Richard T. Thompson
Executive Editor, ONI
