

Detroit Walk Queen

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. —(AP) —Lynn Olson, from the Wolverine Parkettes of Detroit, won the one-mile walk here Saturday night at the National AAU women's track and field meet. She was clocked in seven minutes, 55.8 seconds.

Meet officials said the performance will be submitted as an American record—the first time the event has been held.

Pam Bagina, another Detroitier representing the Wolverine Track Club, finished fourth in the two-mile run.
