

Alma Bags Cross Country Finals Spot

MT. PLEASANT — Alma and Carson City-Crystal captured the Class B and Class C-D regional cross country titles here Saturday.

Alma finished with 30 points compared to second place Pinconning's 69. Both teams qualify for next week's Class B finals at Vicksburg.

CARSON CITY had 54 points, topping second-place Rogers City's 67. Shepherd was third with 96, Ithaca 12th at 368 and St. Louis 24th 713.

Dave LaClair of Pinconning was the individual winner in Class B, running the three-mile course at Pleasant Hills Golf Course in 16:16. For Alma, Fred Lentz was second, Cam Edwards third, Jerry Hendon sixth, Dave Harris eighth and Tom Smith 11th.

Reed City's Herb Lindsay was first in Class C-D over the same course, running 15:24. Mark Kelly (fifth), Steve Ryan (sixth), John Dennis (12th), Kevin Cusack (13th) and Al Spice (18th) made up Carson City's winning quintet.

TWO RUNNERS for Shepherd, Chris Glowacki (second) and Sam Myer (third) were qualifiers for the Class C-D state meet, slated for Jackson next Saturday.
