Celebrity Golf Meet Planned

BESSEMER — Arrangements for the first Celebrity Golf Tournament at the Gogebic Country Club July 1 were discussed at a meeting of the board of directors of the Gogebic Range Coaches Clinic, Inc., here this week.

The tournament will be one of the highlights of the Football Coaches Clinic scheduled June 29-July 1 and will feature many well-known amateur and professional sports personalities matched with golfers from the area.

So far, 20 sports personalities have agreed to play in the tournament and more are expected.

Those who have already agreed to try their luck on the Gogebic Country Club links include Duffy Daugherty and Jack Breslin of the Michigan State University football coaching staff; Alex Agase, head coach of Northwestern University; Frank Kush of Arizona State University; Frank "Muddy" Waters of Hillsdale College; Dan Boisture, "Frosty" Ferzacca and Harold Sponberg of Eastern Michigan University; Rollie Detsch of the Green Bay Packers; Jerry Burns of the Minnesota Vikings and Gil Canale of Northern Michigan University.

Two celebrities will be paired with two golfers from the area, with the area golfers paying the greens fees. The greens fees will also include refreshments and prizes. Anyone interested in entering should contact course pro Nick Milakovich at the country club.

Tickets for the coaches clinic are available to persons in this area at several locations. The
