STATE OF ILLINOIS
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
SPRINGFIELD 62706

RICHARD B. OGILVIE
GOVERNOR

May 25, 1972

GREETINGS:

On behalf of all the people of Illinois, I'm pleased to welcome all the participants to this memorable first International High School Track & Field Championships to our state. We have a long history of athletic excellence in Illinois, and we are proud that you are gathering here for this historic occasion.

While you are visiting the Land of Lincoln, I hope you will take a little extra time and see more of this rich and varied state--its historic shrines, its panoramic vistas, its great cities, and most of all, its friendly people. We are honored to be your hosts for this important competition.

My very best wishes for a successful meet. We hope you will return soon to the center of mid-America.

Sincerely,

Richard B. Ogilvie
Governor

Chicago has had its great track and field stars in recent years: the renowned University of Chicago Track Club offered American record holder John Craft in the triple jump and NCAA pole vault record holder Jan Johnson on last summer's U.S. team in the Pan-American Games.

Several months later the club put four on the U.S. team for the first indoor dual meet with the Russians. The national AAU champion Mayor Daley Youth Foundation women's team has landed Willye White and Mamie Rallins on most all touring U.S. squads including the Olympic team.

But the area has gone a long time without hosting a track and field meet of national consequence. The meet today fills that void.

The young men you see competing here today will be battling for spots in the national Amateur Athletic Union Junior championships, to be held June 23-24 in Denver.

Only the top two finishers in this meet can go to the AAU Junior nationals, which decide the U.S. team for this summer's first international dual meet with the Russian Junior team.

Needless to say, the names of the athletes competing here today are worth remembering: they're sure to be our coming college stars and many have the potential to develop into future Olympians.

I like to look on this meet as another link on a chain of major track and field attractions held in the Chicago area.

Unfortunately, it's been eight years since the last link was added. That was in 1964, the farewell year of the old Daily News Relays. Not since then has a track and field meet of this stature been held here.

Digging back into history, the Daily News Relays emerged as an important stop on the indoor track circuit in 1936 with the spotlight on a legendary Kansas miler named Glenn Cunningham. The meet's swan song was highlighted by a world indoor mile record—which still stands—by Loyola's Tom O'Hara before a cheering 18,000 in the Chicago Stadium.

In between there were added attractions. In 1948, for instance, the Olympic trials were held at Northwestern and stars like Harrison Dillard and Mal Whitfield took a back-seat to a Northwestern hurdler named Bill Porter, who went on to win the Olympic championship.

Eleven years later a steeplechase victory by Chicago's Phil Coleman was one of the features of the Pan-American Games at Soldier Field. In 1961, the U.S.—Poland dual meet offered international competition at Stagg Field on the University of Chicago campus. In 1964 it was Northwestern as host for the Big Ten championships.

Now its 1972 and the International Prep Invitational. In the field are two national high school record-setters: Scott Overton of Los Altos, Calif., in the discus and Alvin Jackson of Providence, R.I., in the hammer throw.

There's also a sprinter named Howard Jones from nearby Evanston. He is the best prep dashman ever produced in Illinois, the first man ever to win the 100 and 220, three straight years in the 78-year history of the Illinois prep championships.

Howard will face his toughest competition yet in the International Prep Invitational.

Then there's Urbana's Doug Laz, son of the former Illinois pole vault world record holder Don Laz, and Ken Paulson of Elmhurst's York High. Neither was a state champion but they both recorded the best school boy performances in Illinois history in the specialties, Doug with a 15-foot 5-inch pole vault and Ken with a 21-second flat in the 220 yard dash.

And there's many, many more stars in the field. So let's sit back and watch some of the world's best track and field athletes perform.

BOBCATS

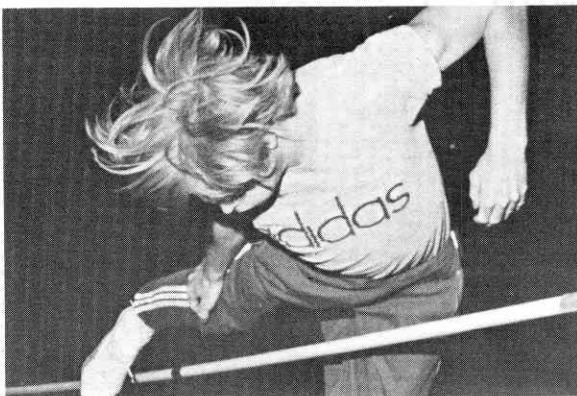

Kenny Dean has coached track at Marshalltown Community High School, Marshalltown, Iowa, for 27 years, 6 years as assistant track coach, and 21 years as head coach. He has also been head Cross Country coach since he initiated the sport there in '58. For the past five years he has, and is, a member of the state track committee. He has conducted clinics for the I.H.S.A.A., and has appeared on several out-of-state clinics.

His teams have produced 12 champions at the Iowa State track meet, and have had 11 firsts at Drake Relays.

During his 13 years of Cross Country, his teams have piled up 209 dual meet wins against 30 losses and 1 tie. In those years they have won the state mile team race 5 times, the state cross country meet 5 times, and the conference championship 10 times.
