CANTON, O. — Detroiters finished 1-2 Sunday in the Women's AAU track meet, a tune-up for the Olympic trials at Frederick, Md., next weekend.

Jeanne Bocci completed the 1,500-meter walk in six minutes, 59.1 seconds, and since it is a new event on the AAU schedule, the time was certified as an AAU record.

Lynn Olson, also from Detroit, was second in 7:06.

Lynn Lovat of Detroit was fourth in the 3,000-meter run, while another Detroit, Susan McLalin, took sixth place in the long jump.

The meet was highlighted in the long jump by the 13th AAU Championship for Willye White, a 32-year-old Chicago public relations representative. Miss White leaped 20 feet, 6¼ inches.

Olga Connally, veteran of four Olympics and wife of Olympic hammer thrower Harold Connally, hinted she may retire after finishing second in the discus.
