Ryan's 300 best for area field

Special to The Journal

DETROIT — Robb Ryan's tie for seventh place was the best a Flint area golf delegation could manage in the Michigan Medal Play Championship at Detroit Golf Club.

Don Brooks, who won the Horton Smith with an 18-hole score of 144 two days ago, continued his hot streak to clip Jeff Reaume of Washtenaw County Club in a three-hole sudden death playoff.

The Horton Smith and Michigan Medal Play is a combined tournament with the same field. The first 36 holes determine the Horton Smith champ and all 72 holes are used for the medal play king.

Ryan had rounds of 76-71-76-77 for 300. Gene Hunt, who tied for third in the Horton Smith with 78-68 for 146, added 75-80 for 301. Mark Henrickson came in a 320 on 82-71-78-71. Keith Mohan had 75-72-81-75 for 303 and Rod Sumpter carded 76-74-76-80 for 306. Dr. Wayne Kramer withdrew from the Michigan Medal Play and Bob Bernstein didn't make the cut.

Brooks, of Red Golf Club in Ferndale, had 72-72-76-71 for 291. Reaume was 76-70-74-71 for the same 72-hole total. Each parred the first two extra holes before Brooks earned a par on No. 3 to Reaume's bogey.
