

No Champs' Meet

The Champion of Champions prep track and field meet, a Memorial Day weekend sports attraction here for nearly two decades, is not going to be held this year, a victim of who was going to stage the big show.

Hopefully, with track and field interest on the rise, the meet matching top performers from all enrollment classes from throughout the state will be back on the activity card next spring.