

Don Sims... new state Class C record holder

Sims' record helps New Haven to 2nd

◆ English track results pg. 31

IC THE TIMES HERALD PORT HURON, MICH. Sunday, June 2, 1974

The time went to a state record in the high hurdles Saturday as Don Sims, 17, of New Haven, broke the 1967 record of 1:21.4 set by Jimmie Smith of Detroit. Sims, who ran the race in 1:21.0, was the only runner to break the 1:22 barrier. He was the only runner to break the 1:22 barrier. He was the only runner to break the 1:22 barrier.

Don Sims (left) and Jimmie Smith (right)

Don Sims, 17, of New Haven, broke the 1967 record of 1:21.4 set by Jimmie Smith of Detroit. Sims, who ran the race in 1:21.0, was the only runner to break the 1:22 barrier.

Don Sims, 17, of New Haven, broke the 1967 record of 1:21.4 set by Jimmie Smith of Detroit. Sims, who ran the race in 1:21.0, was the only runner to break the 1:22 barrier.

Injuries hurt Port Huron '9' bumped

◆ News described pg. 31

The Port Huron '9' team, which was expected to be a contender for the state Class C championship, was bumped out of the race Saturday because of injuries to several key players. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was unable to field a complete team for the race.

The Port Huron '9' team, which was expected to be a contender for the state Class C championship, was bumped out of the race Saturday because of injuries to several key players. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was unable to field a complete team for the race.

The Port Huron '9' team, which was expected to be a contender for the state Class C championship, was bumped out of the race Saturday because of injuries to several key players. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was unable to field a complete team for the race.

The Port Huron '9' team, which was expected to be a contender for the state Class C championship, was bumped out of the race Saturday because of injuries to several key players. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was unable to field a complete team for the race.

The Port Huron '9' team, which was expected to be a contender for the state Class C championship, was bumped out of the race Saturday because of injuries to several key players. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was unable to field a complete team for the race.

The Port Huron '9' team, which was expected to be a contender for the state Class C championship, was bumped out of the race Saturday because of injuries to several key players. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was unable to field a complete team for the race.

The Port Huron '9' team, which was expected to be a contender for the state Class C championship, was bumped out of the race Saturday because of injuries to several key players. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was unable to field a complete team for the race.

The Port Huron '9' team, which was expected to be a contender for the state Class C championship, was bumped out of the race Saturday because of injuries to several key players. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was unable to field a complete team for the race.

Pontiac Central ends dry spell in track

◆ News described pg. 31

Pontiac Central's track team ended a long losing streak Saturday by winning the Class C championship. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was able to field a complete team for the race.

Pontiac Central's track team ended a long losing streak Saturday by winning the Class C championship. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was able to field a complete team for the race.

Pontiac Central's track team ended a long losing streak Saturday by winning the Class C championship. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was able to field a complete team for the race.

Pontiac Central's track team ended a long losing streak Saturday by winning the Class C championship. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was able to field a complete team for the race.

Pontiac Central's track team ended a long losing streak Saturday by winning the Class C championship. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was able to field a complete team for the race.

Pontiac Central's track team ended a long losing streak Saturday by winning the Class C championship. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was able to field a complete team for the race.

Pontiac Central's track team ended a long losing streak Saturday by winning the Class C championship. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was able to field a complete team for the race.

Pontiac Central's track team ended a long losing streak Saturday by winning the Class C championship. The team, which had a record of 1-1, was able to field a complete team for the race.

World's fastest human only 3rd

◆ News described pg. 31

Don Quarrie, the world's fastest human, finished only third in the 100-meter dash at the state Class C championship. The race was won by Don Sims of New Haven.

Don Quarrie, the world's fastest human, finished only third in the 100-meter dash at the state Class C championship. The race was won by Don Sims of New Haven.

Two area girls take 8th place

◆ News described pg. 31

Two girls from the area took 8th place in the state Class C championship. The girls were Don Sims and Jimmie Smith.

Two girls from the area took 8th place in the state Class C championship. The girls were Don Sims and Jimmie Smith.

Event Smith in Rome finishes

◆ News described pg. 31

Event Smith, a world-class athlete, finished the race in Rome. The race was won by Don Sims of New Haven.

Event Smith, a world-class athlete, finished the race in Rome. The race was won by Don Sims of New Haven.

Clipped By:

jeffhollobaugh
Wed, Dec 26, 2018