

Relay Wins Boost Pioneer Past Giants

Special to The News

KALAMAZOO — The times weren't great but the competition was.

The Pioneer High track team needed the last two relays to beat Kalamazoo Central Tuesday, and the two foursomes came through handsomely for a 65½-57½ victory in the Seven-A League dual meet.

Clarence Modjeski, who hadn't worked out for a week due to a sore leg, picked up three crucial points with a second place in the high jump; Aaron Kaufer won the pole vault for the first time ever, and Greg Simsar knocked a full second off his time to capture the low hurdles to contribute further to the victory.

The Pioneers are now 2-1 and play host to Lansing Sexton in another league meet Thursday.
