

Homer dominates Big 8 meet, but Quincy takes title

QUINCY—Mark Smith, Ron Robinson, Anthony Armstrong and Dave Bowersox led Homer to a wide victory in the second Big Eight Conference track meet here Thursday, but Quincy walked away with the league title on the strength of its perfect league record in dual meets.

Homer totaled 79 points Thursday, including 15½ by Smith, the meet's top scorer. Other team totals were Quincy 47, Concord 43, Springport 21, Union City 17, Reading 13, Jonesville 12 and Athens 8.

Final league point totals, based two-thirds on dual meets and one-third on the league meet, are Quincy 21, Homer 20, Concord 16, Springport 13, Reading 7, Union City 6, Athens 5 and Jonesville 4.

Smith, a senior four-sport standout at Homer, won both hurdles events, the 120-yard highs in :15.5 and the 100-yard lows in :21.4. He also took fourth in the high jump and ran on Homer's winning 800-yard relay team.

Robinson, Bowersox and Armstrong each won one event and ran on two victorious relay teams. Robinson took the long jump at 19-7½, Bowersox the 220-yard dash in :23.1 and Armstrong the 100-yard dash in :10.5.

Other individual champions were Quincy's Dan King in the high jump (6-3½), Homer's Jamie Huffman in the pole vault (12-0), Concord's Tom Dobbins in the shot put (47-½), Jonesville's Mark Bordner in the 440-yard dash (:51.5), Quincy's Roy Snyder in the 800-yard run (2:02.1), Concord's Mike Jurasek in the mile run (4:39.4) and Homer's Brian Mull in the two-mile run (10:15.5).

League meet records were broken or tied in seven events.
