

64 area kids Texas-bound

U.S. Youth Games slated

Sixty-four Detroit-area youngsters will compete in bowling, tennis, basketball and track and field at the U.S. Youth Games, which begin Thursday and continue through Sunday at Fort Worth, Tex.

They will vie against youth teams from New York, Boston,

Newark, Washington, Baltimore, Birmingham, Ala.; Paterson, N.J., and Fort Worth.

They are:

BOWLING — Karen Zaleski, Dearborn, and Paula Millard, Southgate, girls 11-and-under; Cheryl Johnson, Detroit, and Carol Barbieri, St. Clair Shores, girls 12 and 13, and Cheryl Daniels and Davida Boozer, both of Detroit, girls 14 and 15.

Tim O'Shaughnessy, Mt. Clemens, and Dan Slavin, Warren, Boys 11-and-under; David Lasky, Madison Heights, and Jeff Weipert, St. Clair Shores, boys 12 and 13, and Durand Walker, Detroit, and Chris Fiebig, Madison Heights, boys 14 and 15.

TENNIS — Paul Van Wallegam, Grosse Pointe Woods, and Glennys Merritt, Detroit, Boys 14 and under, and Nicole Lorenzetti, Bloomfield Hills, and Marianne Ring, Franklin, Girls 14-and-under.

The boys' alternates are David Somerville, Dearborn, and Doug Prew, Birmingham. Girls' alternates are Robbie Risdon, Bloomfield Hills, and Lisa Milczarski, Detroit.

TRACK AND FIELD — (Girls) Ronda Beauford, Felicia Brown, Beth Brunn, Jackie Burton, Francetta Dorsey, Lisa Glenn, Angela Johnson, Deanna Macreno, Carol Montgomery, Denise Morrow, Lisa Sims, Karla Tensley, Melpine Tillmn, Lee Ann Yankik, Sheila Young, Delisa Walton, Kim Watts and Rebecca Holtgrieve.

(Boys) Reginaald Ashley, Blair Ballish, Carl Bower, Mike Cervi, Delacey Dixon, John Holloway, Kenneth Hughes, Antonio Johnson, Jack Johnson, Charley Jones, Larry Jordan, Tim Kenny, Dwayne Pritchard, Marvel Ross, William Shannon, Darryl Tucker, Thomas Wilcher, Stanley Young, Steven Young and Norman Owens.

Warren pair star in Shores tennis

Brian Lambert and Karen Sigler, both of Warren, won the men's and women's singles championships in the 10-day St. Clair Shores Junior Open tennis tournament which ended Sunday.

Lambert defeated Tom Luncford of Roseville, 6-3, 6-2. Laura Tatt of Oak Park was the loser in the women's division, 6-3, 6-3.

Fred Trapnell and Ken Angal, both of St. Clair Shores, defeated Doug Smith and Sandy Smith, both of Grosse Pointe Shores, 6-0, 6-3, in men's doubles. There was no women's doubles.

Following are other results:

BOYS' 12 SINGLES — Adam Bottorff, Toledo, defeated Eric Johnson, Ann Arbor, 6-4, 6-2.

GIRLS' 12 SINGLES — Lisa Hamilton, Detroit, def. Rachel Krickstein, Grosse Pointe, 6-3, 6-7, 6-4.

GIRLS' 14 SINGLES — Sue Transue, Grosse Pointe, def. Marlene Diamond, Birmingham, 6-4, 6-1.

BOYS' 14 SINGLES — Kevin Easterly, Rochester, def. Chris Robinson, Detroit, 6-3, 6-1.

GIRLS' 18 SINGLES — Barb Fischley, Grosse Pointe, def. Judy Boyle, Birmingham, 6-2, 6-1.

BOYS' 18 SINGLES — Rick Shaheen, St. Clair Shores, def. Brian Monfiles, East Detroit, 4-6, 7-5, 7-5.

GIRLS' 18 DOUBLES — Lisa Wood and Sara Transue, both of Grosse Pointe, def. Karen Cook and Ceci Warrick, both of Plymouth, 6-4, 6-2.

BOYS' 18 DOUBLES — Shaheen and Bob Bracci, St. Clair Shores, def. Ken Rychwalski and Chuck Bruster, St. Clair Shores, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

BOYS' 16 DOUBLES — Joe Ficarra and Paul Heinen, both of St. Clair Shores, def. Gordon Kamisar and Brian Scruggs, both of Detroit, 6-4, 6-4.

The Ann Arbor Junior Open tennis tournament will be held Monday, Aug. 13, at the Racquet Club of Ann Arbor and the Huron Valley Tennis Club of Dixboro. Deadline for entries is Friday.

Canoe race on tap

The Michigan Canoe Racing