Pin feats unnoticed

On April 22 and 23 two exceptional bowling feats by a Harbore woman were relatively unnoticed. Jennifer VanDusen, a 173 average bowler, rolled a 671 series...

Prince critique hit

In reference to your column "Basketball TV Needs Surgery," I was a pastor in the Pittsburgh area for many years and came to know Bob Prince when you broadcasted...

Merrifield, Matthysen have big days

Holt, Williamston state champs

Holt and Williamston are looking down on Michigan prep girls track and field from towering vantage points today. Each charged to its first state meet...

ALMA WAS third in "B" class 100-yard dash. Linda Merrifield was event of a heroine in Williamston's title sweep. She won both short dashes, setting a record of 23.2 in the 200...

THE BOOK of a Waverly athlete was the high light of local prep performance. In the "A" class, a and D. Dora Warren matched her own state champion with a discus throw of 141 feet even for the "B" class.

Williamston's Kenda Youn claimed the mile championship with a 2:23.4 closing. And St. Louis' mile relay was won by the team of Tracy Oswald and Mary Day...

Williamston didn't have a monopoly on local Class C honors by any means. The "A" class 100-yard dash was won by Dora Warren...

Class A Girls Doreen Ervin of Waverly ran the second fastest mile over in Michigan by a prep girl. All that kept her from being Warren's is a champion's mile relay ran 4:15.4 for fourth.

Class D Girls Nadine Brooks of Danville and Deb Smith of Porterville accounted for all the local action. Brooks ran 5:38.4 in the mile for third place. Smith fared the best 5:51.3 for seventh.

Class A Janine Crawley of East Lansing topped a fourth in the two-mile in 11:46.8. Dana Ervin of Waverly was fifth and Dawn Jahn of East Lansing sixth in the race with 2:22.1. However, a mile relay was first in 4:05.

Class B Girls State championships and records weren't all that good. It also claimed a third from St. Joseph's, a discus with a throw of 108-4, and fourth from Matthysen in the high jump 5.5 and Debbie Ray in the two-mile, 12:14.4.

Class C Girls State championships and records weren't all that good. It also claimed a third from St. Joseph's, a discus with a throw of 108-4, and fourth from Matthysen in the high jump 5.5 and Debbie Ray in the two-mile, 12:14.4.
