LOTS OF CRITICS — The two mile relay competitors are almost overwhelmed by other athletes watching at the Marysville Relays.

Rockets fare well in Marysville Relays

By LARRY MORGAN
The Marysville Sports Writer reports that the Rockets made the best of it and won the Class C portion of the 1977 relay meet.

The Rockets also grabbed a second in the Class C standing, New Haven finished with 28 points, Port Huron with 13 and Marquette City Bay with 10.

Anchor Ray's runners ran well early in the meet, taking a fourth in the middle distance relay.

ON BREAK — Jimmy French (right) of New Haven hands off to Ken Thompson during the middle distance relay.

WINNING BEATS — Greg Adams lets loose with a put of over 20 feet to help New Haven win the shot put relay.

Ken Subinski and Ray Storme gave Marysville a slim lead after two legs but once Dave Pater and longhorns it was all over for Mike Turbitt. Turbitt, who had won one other relay, leaving the Rockets and added to Pater's margin.
