Badgers, MSU 1-2

MADISON, WIS.—Michigan State, led by runners Lisa Berry, L.J. Warnes and Nathalie Hughes finished second behind the Wisconsin Badgers in the first Big Ten Women's Cross Country Championships here Saturday.

Despite the Spartans' runner-up position in the championship, MSU cross country coach Eric Zern per was not too happy with the final outcome. "Going into it (the Big Ten Championship), I thought it would be a lot closer than it was," Zern per said. "I'm not particularly pleased. We'll just take whatever amount we can out of it and start getting ready for meeting Wisconsin again in a couple of weeks."

POTTERVILLE — Area power St. Louis won the Class C title, while six-defending champion Potterville High almost grabbed a third crown in Class D, at the Girls' State Open Cross Country Championships here Saturday morning.

AKRON-FAIRGROVE, THE new Class D champs, edged the Viking harriers, 74-78, while St. Louis coasted out Decatur, 105-101, in Class C. Livonia Stevenson slipped past Brighton, 86-101, in the A race, while Carleton Airport won convincingly in B with 122 points, followed by Milan's 136.

Nora Green of Shepherd broke the tape in the Class C race with a 17:14 clocking, while Beth Exon finished seventh to lead St. Louis. Robin Magee of Ann Arbor Greenhills won the D run in a time of 18:49, while Jane Sarma and Pam Maguire led AkronFairgrove with a six-sevenths finish. Julie Lantz of Grass Lake and Martha Kundrat of Potterville took second and third, respectively.

Laurie Bennett of Livonia Stevenson took the Class A individual honors with a 17:33 time, while Leah DeMaat won the B race at 17:31. Meanwhile, Debbie Love led B winner Carleton Airport with a third-place finish.

HOLT, LED by Janie Barner's fourth-place finish, made a strong push at the end to nip Dearborn District Child, 146-137, for the final trophy in Class B, a third-place finish. Grassie Pointe North grabbed third in Class A with a 123 total. St. Clements Lutheran North, 119 points, took third in Class C while Detroit Country Day did the same in D with 113.

Among local runners, Janine Crawley, 18th, led East Lansing with a 19:17 clocking, while Jeanette Nash, 22nd, paced Grand Lodge at 19:43. Mary Beckett was another one for leaders, with Marilyn Hobela tops for Everett. Among B runners, Teresa Brink, fifth, led Okemos at 18:49, while Brenda Bennett took charge for St. Johns, and Janice Bowser for Charlotte.

Members of the victorious St. Louis squad include Beth Exon (seventh), Janell Best (17th), Sharon Carstairs (23rd), Lorne Flicker (27th), Amy Anderson (31st), Janna Graham (43rd) and Kathy McPherson (63rd).
