

Montrose qualified 12 individuals for the state Class C girls' track meet in winning the regional with 67 points at Cass City. Hamady was second with 48 points.

The Rams won all three relays. Pallastine Harris, Liz Greene, Media Bragg and Kris Podulka triumphed in the 880-yard relay; Podulka, Renatta Schmidt, Freda Bragg and M. Bragg won the 440 and Greene, Denise Dowell, Christy Webber and Cindy Reinhart won the mile.

Cynthia Cayton won the high jump and Harris took the 220 for Montrose.

The individuals who qualified in the other events were: Greene, third in the long jump; Webber, second, and Podulka, third in the discus; Sherry Thorne, third in the two-mile; Dowell, third in the 880; Harris, second in the 100; Webber, second in the shot put; Greene, third in the 440; and Teresa Pringle, second in the mile.

Laurie Byrd, long jump; Janet DiNicolo, 880; and Susan Rheume, 110 low hurdles, were winners for Hamady. The Hawks' 880 and mile relay teams qualified by finishing second, while Byrd was second in the hurdles and Tammy Huntman second in the two mile.

Bendle, which finished third with 29 points, had four individual winners including Sheila Dean in the shot put and discus. Cathy Allen won the 100 and Connie Kidder took the two mile. Bendle's other qualifier was Jan Gill, third in the low hurdles.

Goodrich finished sixth with 11 points. Liz Johnson was second in the 440. Atherton, with 10 1-3 points, was seventh led by Robin Baker who qualified in the long jump. Dana Harper won the 440 for New Lothrop which was eighth with nine points. New Lothrop's mile relay team finished fourth but qualified on time.

NORTHWESTERN cracked 14 hits in posting a 4-1 nonleague baseball victory over host Kearsley. Ken Stephens had three hits including a double for Northwestern. Mark Skidmore drove in two runs with a pair of doubles; Jim Holland rapped a double and triple and Rod Tipton had two hits including a double.

Andy Williams, with no-hit relief help from Eric Towner, got the pitching victory.

Gundry leads Lake Fenton to victory

Tom Gundry was the man of the hour Saturday for Lake Fenton in the 10th annual Greater Flint High School Baseball Tournament.

Gundry's bat did the damage early and then his arm took over as the Blue Devils eliminated Ainsworth, 6-3, at Broome Park.

The victory moves Lake Fenton into a 2 p.m. game today at Broome against Hamady. At noon it'll be Mt. Morris against Carman and Southwestern and Flushing will collide at 4 o'clock.

Gundry's two hits helped Lake Fenton build a 4-1 lead in the fourth and then he shut the door on Ainsworth with one-hit relief pitching for the final four innings.

Lake Fenton collected 13 hits in softball, 25-5 and 7-6. Rhonda Dow had three hits including two triples for Davison in the opener and Julie DeWitt added two hits. Cindy Kieffer had a pair of hits for Davison in the second game.

DAVISON increased its Big Nine Conference baseball lead to one game with a 9-7 victory over Flushing in a makeup contest.

Greg Bartlett was 3-for-3 in sparking Davison's 10-hit attack that raised its conference record to 12-2. Bill Hartfield added a double and triple for Davison. The triumph raised Davison's overall record to 19-4 and tied the school record for victories in a season.

Ken Leiffers had two hits for Flushing including a double.

Chris Davis and Don Granger. Mike Bloss, Lars Hanson (7) and Mike Schneider.

PANOL SCHNEIDER belted a two-run homer among two hits as Mt. Morris defeated Bentley, 6-3, in non-league baseball. Jeff Hart, Darren Kinder and Ron Williams also had two hits for Mt. Morris which raised its overall record to 21-6. Bill Hatt pitched the final three innings to get the victory.

MATT DIMENT'S two-run single in the second inning was the difference as Southwestern edged Central, 3-1, in a pre-district qualifying baseball game.

Diment's single made the score 3-0 and sent Southwestern into next week's game against Northern. Winning pitcher Ruben Luna doubled home Bill McNew for the Colts' other run in the first.

Tim Sykes, who had two infield hits, scored Central's run on a double by Jody Smith in the fourth. Luna struck out six in the game that was called after 4 1/2 innings because of rain.

GRAND BLANC won four flights and totaled 24 points to capture the Class A tennis regional at Rochester. Davison, the only other area team in the competition, was fifth with six points.

Winning for Grand Blanc were Greg Helmer, No. 3 singles; Kip Litton, No. 4 singles; Mike Skaff and Derrick Velarde, No. 1 doubles; and Tom Johnson and Tim McCarthy, No. 2 doubles.

Ramon Ranases was second at No. 2 singles for Grand Blanc and Bob Baferman and Mark Swanson were second at No. 2 doubles. It was Grand Blanc's fourth straight regional title. Rochester Adams and Port Huron Northern tied for second with 18 points.

JEFF LEWIS won two events and anchored a victory in the mile relay to lead Holly to the Class B regional track championship at Livonia Clarenceville.

Holly had 38 1/2 points to nip second-place University of Detroit which had 38. Troy was third with 31 followed by Oak Park 25 and Fenton 19. Hartland finished ninth with 11 points.

Lewis won the 880-yard run in 1:55.4 and the mile in 4:29.2. Preceding him in the mile relay were Kevin Pettway, Keith Addis and Jim Ashley. Holly's time was 3:29.1.

Scott Hill won the discus for Holly with a toss of 146-feet, 7-inches. Other Bronchos who qualified for the state meet were Bill Lowande, second in the mile and two mile and Don Chambers, second in the shot put.

Dave Beauchamp won the 440 for Hartland with a time of 50.5.

Steve Loria led Fenton, placing second in the 330 low hurdles and long jump and third in the 220. Dan Hanson was third for Fenton in the 880.

MONTROSE SET a track record in the 880 relay while finishing second in the Class C regional track meet at Marlette.

The Rams, who trailed first-place Unionville-Sebewaing with 30 1/2 points, were timed in 1:33.2 in winning the half-mile relay. Their quartet consisted of Dave Cole, Andy Bragg, Robbie Robinson and Shannon Destrampe.

Unionville-Sebewaing won the meet with 33 points. Hamady was fourth with 24 and Atherton totaled 16.

Cole also qualified for the state meet by winning the long jump with a leap of 20-feet, 11-inches, and running 15.1 seconds while finishing fourth in the 120 high hurdles. Andy Pyrc qualified third for Montrose in the 880 and Robinson was third in the 220.

Don York led Hamady by winning both hurdles races. His time was 38.6 in the 330 lows and 14.8 in the highs. Other Hawk qualifiers were Roger Miller, second in the long jump, and Tim Forte, second in the 220.

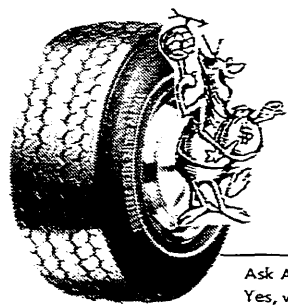

John Darga won the mile (4:27.6) and 880 (1:55.6) to account for all of Atherton's points. Jeff Baldwin qualified second for Bendle in the two mile; Rich Keith qualified for New Lothrop by finishing third in the discus and Goodrich's 880 relay team of Jim LaGrow, Kip Owen, Jim Albrecht and Rod Wood qualified by finishing second.
