"I really didn't know what kind of competition would be at the county meet, and I didn't want Bob to get embroiled in a real hot two-mile race," Balog said. "As it turned out, it was a terrible race, and he could have won easily."

However, Church ran in the 880-yard run, finishing in a non-scoring sixth with a time of 1:58.8. Dondero's Ron Lessard won the two mile in 9:32.0, :11.2 slower than Church's best time this season.

Farmington High's best effort came in the mile run, where Harold Rutila took second with a time of 4:21.65. Another Farmington trackman, Rick McKibben, landed in that four-way knot for fourth place in the high jump.

Harrison's Bill Shankle scored in the discus, taking fifth place at 144-10.

Southfield-Lathrup's Jeff Goforth tied for fifth place in the 330 low hurdles with a :38.9.
